

Acknowledgements

We would like to extend our sincerest gratitude and appreciation to the following individuals and organisations for their support and encouragement in putting together the Minority Report 2019.

Afghanistan

The Afghanistan chapter was drafted by the Civil Society and Human Rights Network in close consultation with civil society activists in Kabul. Our special thanks are due to the roundtable participants, interviewees and the project team whose contribution, inputs and support were invaluable to the success of the project. We would also like to thank M H Hassrat for reviewing the draft chapter.

Bangladesh

We are grateful to the following organisations for their support and guidance in drafting the Bangladesh chapter: Dalit and Excluded Rights Movement (BDERM), Bangladesh Dalit Women Federation, Council of minorities, Maulavibazar Cha Jonogosthi Adivasi Front, and Jatio Adivasi Parishad (JAP). We would also like to extend a word of thanks to Qazi Zahed Iqal for reviewing the draft chapter.

India

We are grateful to Abdul Batin Khandekar in Guwahati, Shahjahan Ali Ahmad in Barpeta, and the many affected families and community mobilisers we spoke with in Assam's Barpeta, Moregaon and Guwahati districts, for our research. We are also grateful to Chayanika Saxena, Khodadad Bisharat, Sabber Kyaw Min, Anam Ajmal and Ashutosh Joshi for helping us reach out to Afghan, Rohingya and Pakistani Hindu refugees in Delhi. We also owe a word of thanks to Ghazala Jamil for reviewing the draft chapter.

Nepal

We extend our sincerest gratitude to Dr Mark Turin and Saroj K Nepal for providing thoroughly detailed and insightful reviews of the draft chapter for Nepal. We are also thankful to all members of the Advisory Committee (Mohna Ansari, Yam Bahadur Kisan, Youba Raj Luitel and Sashi Adhikari) for their encouragement and support. We are also immensely grateful to all the refugees and individuals interviewed at the Bhutanese and Tibetan refugee camps for welcoming us into the camps so graciously and for sharing their stories with us.

Pakistan

We owe a word of thanks to Sahar Ahmad and Haider Imtiaz for reviewing the draft chapter. We are also grateful to Javaid William and Sana Salman for their support and guidance in drafting and refining the Pakistan chapter.

Sri Lanka

We are grateful to the following organisations for their support and guidance in drafting the Sri Lanka chapter: National Christian Evangelical Alliance of Sri Lanka Amnesty International, INFORM, National Peace Council, Law and Society Trust. We would also like to extend a word of thanks to the individuals interviewed, for their time and input: Rabia Mehmood (Amnesty), Ruki Fernando (Inform) and Aamina Nizar. We are also thankful to reviewers, Jehan Perera, (National Peace Council) and Jayadeva Uyangoda, for their invaluable input and guidance in refining the Sri Lanka chapter.

Finally, we would like to thank Fernand de Vareennes, the UN Special Rapporteur on Minority Issues, for writing the foreword to this report. Thanks are also due to Minority Rights Group International (MRG), London, and Shikha Dilawri and Ifra Asad for their support throughout the production of the report.
